The professional team at Frontline is unusually experienced and respected within the industry. You will not find this level of concentration and caliber of talent within an organization that is anywhere near our size. The team at Frontline is comprised of hard-working, down-to-earth individuals with an uncommon commitment to set the standard for excellence. This is a team that has been developed to handle the ‘heavy lifting’ necessary to engage in situations where quality improvement is critical and the potential to create value is exceptional.

We have an impressive record in resolving serious and complex regulatory compliance issues and have produced what has been described as “unbelievable” financial turnarounds.
